

Reardon Smith Theatre National Museum Gallery, Cardiff

Cardiff's first concert of traditional Armenian music in memory of the 90th anniversary of the Armenian genocide

23rd April 2005

ramke

Keram, the Armenian traditional music ensemble, perform their repertoire of traditional songs linked to everyday life, ancient instrumental pieces and contemporary compositions. The aim of the group is to affirm their existence as part of the Armenian diaspora of Marseille.

All proceeds go to the Hamaskaine Armenian School in Marseille

Doors 8pm £5/£2 children

Tickets and further Information
Contact Arnaud Amat on 07849 590 842

"CLIQUE"
LIVE

RAMKE
MAKE IT HAPPEN

CARDIFF
CAERDYDD